

RICE HUMANITIES

Department of Transnational Asian Studies

Fall 2021

ASIA 381

SOUTH ASIAN DIASPORAS

Mon

1:00 - 3:30 pm

Elora Shehabuddin

Professor of Transnational Asian Studies | elora@rice.edu

People of South Asian heritage constitute one of the largest, and most religiously, culturally, linguistically diverse diasporas in the world. This upper-level seminar examines the historical and contemporary experiences of South Asian men and women who established communities in Africa, the Americas, Australia, Europe, the Middle East, and Southeast Asia.

Open to all majors/ no prerequisite