

ASIA 224

A HISTORY OF THE SILK ROADS

Distribution I

NEW COURSE!

TTh
10:50 AM - 12:05 PM

Lisa Balabanlilar

Professor, Department of Transnational Asian Studies and Department of History | balabanlilar@rice.edu

Course explores Inner Asian trade routes as both source and conduit for cultural encounters and transfers among Chinese, Greek, Persian, Arab, Turkic, and Mongol peoples, among others, 500 BCE-1600 CE. Focusing on the material and cultural exchange, religion, nomadic migration, state building that shaped the human and geopolitical landscape.

Approved for the HIST major and minor and the MDEM major and minor