

RICE HUMANITIES

Department of Transnational Asian Studies

Fall 2022

ASIA 336

GENDER AND SOCIETY IN BUDDHISM

Distribution I

NEW COURSE!

WF
4:00 - 5:15 PM

Eric Huntington

T.T. & W.F. Chao Assistant Professor of Transnational Asian Studies | huntington@rice.edu

Gender, class, and social role are crucial in Buddhism despite its philosophical denials of the importance of self. Examining great works of literature and art, this course addresses the lived experiences and historical perceptions of numerous different types of individuals in Buddhist history, especially emphasizing considerations of gender.

Approved for the SWGS major and minor, the RELI major and minor, and the MDEM major and minor