

FALL 2026

ASIA 203

NEW COURSE

Empire on Horseback

MW | 12:35 - 1:50 PM | Lisa Balabanlilar

This course explores the histories of the nomadic peoples who dominated the Central Asian steppe from antiquity to the early modern era, focusing on warfare, diplomacy, trade, cross-cultural exchange, and their lasting religious, artistic, and political impact across Eurasia.

Distribution 1 | No prerequisites | Approved for HIST major & minor

RICE HUMANITIES AND ARTS

Department of Transnational Asian Studies

MORE INFO