

FALL 2026

ASIA 206

NEW COURSE

Print Cultures in South Asia

TTh | 10:50 AM - 12:05 PM | Sourav Chatterjee

This course studies popular print media and ephemera in South Asia from the nineteenth century to the present. Concentrating on multiple non-Western understandings of media, gender, and representation, this course provides a broad overview of bodily practices, art techniques, and gender politics in South Asia.

Distribution 1 | No prerequisites

RICE HUMANITIES AND ARTS
Department of Transnational Asian Studies

