

FALL 2026

ASIA 234 • HART 234

NEW COURSE

Religion and Art in Japan

TTh | 9:25 - 10:40 AM | Eric Huntington

This course explores the intersection of Japan's religious and artistic traditions. From Amaterasu to Zen, students will trace the evolution of Shinto, Buddhism, and folklore from ancient origins to modern media, highlighting Japan's unique cultural innovations and global impact.

Distribution 1 | Approved for the RELI major & minor | No prerequisites

RICE HUMANITIES AND ARTS

Department of Transnational Asian Studies

MORE INFO